Digital Citizenship

Teaching students to be digitally responsible in an irresponsible society

What do we teach?

H-Is It hurtful?

 ${f I}$ - Is it illegal?

N - 1s it necessary?

K-Is it kind?

Specific things we teach:

- Always give credit to online authors, artists, photos, etc. Don't plagiarize.
- You are never really anonymous online.
- Be careful what you post. Colleges and jobs are likely to search for you online.
- Don't believe everything you see online.
 Validate information in multiple sources.
- Stay away from inappropriate content.
- Never overshare online.
- Be mindful of others when sharing
- Be aware of who you're sharing with.

How can you help?

Talk to your children... Communication is key.

- Model how we want our kids to act.
- Suggestions:
 - No technology/devices at dinner and after 9:00pm (unless educationally relevant)
 - Know your child's passwords.
 - Verizon Smart Family

What is your digital footprint?
